Mobile DUI Command Center in Union Gap

The Washington State Patrol's new tool in combating DUI will be available for viewing by law enforcement and the press this Friday July 7th. The converted 36 foot Winnebago doubles as a DUI processing van and mobile command center. The van is equipped with 3 breath test machines, computers, advanced communications systems, interview room, and 2 prisoner holding cells. The van is designed to be used at large scale events and multi-agency emphasis patrols.

Members from the patrols Breath Test section will be on hand to answer questions.
